Program Information

Mission Statement

The Master of Arts in English provides graduate training in literatures written in English, creative writing, and rhetoric and composition.

Goals for the MA are that students will:

- Gain advanced knowledge of British, American, and other literary traditions, and
- Write a thesis or culminating project in which they initiate and complete specialized research addressing a significant question in literary studies or rhetoric and composition, or produce a significant body of creative work.

Admission Requirements

MA with Graduate Teaching Assistant application: due January 5th

MA without Graduate Teaching Assistant application:

- Fall Semester: Due July 15th
- Spring Semester: Due December 1
- Summer Semester: Due April 15

All applicants should submit:

- Online Graduate Application (<https://louisville.edu/graduate/futurestudents/apply-materials/application/>)
- Complete official transcripts of all college level work
- Two academic letters of recommendation with discursive comments
- A personal statement (1000 words max.) describing your areas of interest within English studies, your future academic/career plans, and your reasons for applying to our MA program.
- Critical writing sample (~ten pages)
- International students must also submit official reports of the TOEFL, IELTS or Duolingo examination

- Creative writing sample (optional and in addition to the critical writing sample)
- Graduate Student Assistantship (GTA) Application (PDF) (<https://louisville.edu/english/graduate/forms/ma-gta-application/>) (January 5th deadline only)
- For GTA applicants: A statement (1-2 pages) describing how you would approach teaching in general and teaching writing in particular. If you have experience as a teaching or tutor, describe your teaching philosophy and provide some specific examples of how you turn that philosophy into practice in the classroom or writing center. What are the most important concepts and skills you think student writers need to learn? If you do not have experience as a teacher or tutor, describe what, as a student, you have found effective in your best teachers. What approaches to teaching and what personal qualities did you value in their work? Describe how you would approach teaching based on what you have experienced. What are the most important concepts and skills you think student writers need to learn?

Program Requirements

The Master of Arts in English requires 30 credit hours of academic work at the graduate level. In addition to fulfilling the core requirements, students may take additional work in literary studies, creative writing, or rhetoric and composition. Students may take no more than three 500-level graduate courses. Creative writing courses (including up to six (6) credit hours of thesis guidance) may total no more than 15 credit hours. Students may count one elective outside the Department of English toward their degree upon approval by the director of graduate studies. Student must also demonstrate proficiency in one language other than English. Detailed requirement information can be found in the (<https://louisville.edu/english/graduate/graduate-program-guidelines-2/>) English Department Graduate Program Guidelines (<https://louisville.edu/english/graduate/graduate-program-guidelines/>). (<https://louisville.edu/english/graduate/graduate-program-guidelines-2/>)

- Thesis Option = 24 credit hours of coursework + six (6) credit hours of thesis guidance
- Non-Thesis Option = 30 credit hours of coursework + culminating project

Graduate-level English courses beyond those listed may count towards requirements depending on the topics covered. Detailed course descriptions (<http://louisville.edu/english/graduate/graduate-course-descriptions/>), available on the English Department website, will provide this information and can be discussed during advising with the director of graduate studies.
