Program Information

Mission Statement
The Master of Arts in English provides graduate training in literatures written in English, creative writing, and rhetoric and composition.

Goals for the MA are that students will:

a. Gain advanced knowledge of British, American, and other literary traditions, and
b. Write a thesis or culminating project in which they initiate and complete specialized research addressing a significant question in literary studies or rhetoric and composition, or produce a significant body of creative work.

d. Complete official transcripts of all college level work. Official transcripts must be sent directly to the Graduate School directly from the previous institution or transcript service. International applicants with transcripts that are not in English, in addition to submitting official copies of native language records, must also submit a notarized, verbatim translation in English prepared by an appropriate university or government official. The records must show both the degree granted and all coursework taken during the course of study. Applicants who are submitting transcripts from outside the United States must verify their records by submitting them to one of the following organizations: World Education Services (WES)(www.wes.org (http://www.wes.org/)), Educational Credential Evaluators (www.ece.org (http://www.ece.org/)), Educational Credential Evaluators (ECE), and other NACES approved evaluators found here: www.naces.org/members.

e. Two academic letters of recommendation. Letters from employers and personal references are not acceptable. The reference should speak to the prospective student’s ability to succeed in their graduate studies. Discursive letters must be attached to the PDF form.

f. A personal statement (1000 words max.) describing your areas of interest within English studies, your future academic/career plans, and your reasons for applying to our MA program. Applicants wishing to be considered for a GTA position should add a statement (500-1000 words) describing how they would approach teaching in general and teaching writing in particular.

g. For applicants intending to focus on creative writing: A creative writing sample, in addition to the critical/analytical writing sample.

h. For international students: Official reports of the TOEFL, IELTS, or Duolingo examination demonstrating English language proficiency. All applicants for whom English is a second language must submit one of the following: official TOEFL scores (213 or higher on the computer based test or 80 or higher on the internet-based test); official IELTS scores with at least a 6.5 overall band score from the academic module exam; or official Duolingo scores of 105 or higher. Only official Duolingo tests with subscores are accepted. Applicants holding a bachelor's or advanced degree from an accredited U.S. institution may be exempt from the English proficiency requirement.

Special notes:

• GRE test scores are not required.
• To be considered for a GTA position, see deadline information above.

Program Requirements

The Master of Arts in English requires 30 credit hours of academic work at the graduate level. In addition to fulfilling the core requirements, students may take additional work in literary studies, creative writing, or rhetoric and composition. Students may take no more than three 500-level graduate courses. Creative writing courses (including up to six (6) credit hours of thesis guidance) may total no more than 15 credit hours. Students may count one elective outside the Department of English toward their degree upon approval by the director of graduate studies. Detailed requirement information can be found in the (https://louisville.edu/english/graduate/graduate-program-guidelines-2/)English Department Graduate Program Guidelines (https://louisville.edu/english/).
Graduate-level English courses beyond those listed may count towards requirements depending on the topics covered. Detailed course descriptions, available on the English Department's website, will provide this information and can be discussed during advising with the director of graduate studies.
