Program Information

This program can be completed in a traditional classroom format or entirely online (http://louisville.edu/online/program-finder).

This program is not designed to lead to teacher certification.

The non-teaching master’s degree in Special Education is designed to advance the knowledge and expertise of professionals who are delivering services for children and adolescents with disabilities through comprehensive-care centers, institutions, hospitals, clinics, day care centers, preschools, and community programs.

Admission Requirements

Admission requirements for this program include the following:

- Application to the Graduate School (http://louisville.edu/graduate/apply)
- Official transcripts with a 2.75 minimum GPA in the Bachelor’s degree and a 3.0 or higher GPA for graduate work
- Two letters of recommendation
- Official GRE scores
- Personal statement
- Current Resume

Candidates who earned a baccalaureate (and/or advanced) degree outside the U.S., and whose native language is not English, also must submit official TOEFL scores that meet minimum criteria, and must submit an evaluated transcript from WES (World Education Services) or ECE (Educational Credential Evaluators).

No applications are being accepted for the Assistive Technology concentration for the 2019-2020 academic year. Please check the program website (https://louisville.edu/education/degrees/med-tl) for updates.
