COUNSELING AND PERSONNEL SERVICES (MED)

Master of Education in Counseling and Personnel Services
Unit: College of Education and Human Development (http://louisville.edu/education)
Department: Counseling and Human Development (http://louisville.edu/education/departments/ecpy)
Program Website (http://louisville.edu/education/degrees/med-cps-csp)
Academic Plan Code(s): See Concentration Requirements tab.

Program Information
The MEd in Counseling and Personnel Services is designed to prepare prospective professionals in a variety of counseling areas:

- Art Therapy
- Clinical Mental Health Counseling
- College Student Personnel
- Counseling Psychology
- School Counseling and Guidance.

Theory and practice are critically important components of the program. Students are required to pursue a logical sequence of study that permits a well-balanced preparation in theory, research, and field experience.

Mission
The mission of the M.Ed. in Counseling and Personnel Services is to prepare scholar practitioners for counseling roles in which they contribute to society in a variety of professional positions. Our graduates support principles of social justice, fairness, and equity in their work; proactively promote the welfare of those they serve; and engage in a lifelong process of educational and professional renewal.

Admission Requirements
Prospective students must submit an online application for admission (https://louisville.edu/graduate/apply) to the Graduate School.

- The minimum requirement for admission is the baccalaureate degree or its equivalent from an accredited institution. Minimum overall GPA of 2.75, or 2.75 on the last 60 undergraduate credit hours, is required. Applicants are required to submit all official transcripts from all colleges attended as verification of coursework and degree(s).
- Applicants who have attended a college or university outside of the United States are also required to submit an evaluation of their transcript through either WES (World Education Services) (http://wes.org) or ECE (Educational Credential Evaluators) (http://ece.org). Please note that transcript evaluations can sometimes take several weeks.

Please have transcripts sent to:
Graduate School
University of Louisville
Louisville, KY 40292

If transcripts are sent electronically, please have them sent to the following e-mail: gradadm@louisville.edu

- Each applicant is required to submit at least two letters of recommendation from individuals who can speak to the applicant’s academic and/or professional capabilities and potential. Please list the email addresses for two recommenders in the online application. Recommenders will receive instructions and forms that they will complete online.
- Prospective students must submit a professional goal statement [PDF] (http://louisville.edu/education/degrees/forms/med-cps-professional-goal-statement.pdf) not to exceed 750 words. Please upload the cover sheet (see link) along with your goal statement, to the online application.
- The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is required of all applicants from countries in which English is not the native language. Students holding a baccalaureate or advanced degree from an accredited institution in the United States are exempt from this requirement.
- Submission of GRE scores is required. Students may be admitted based upon the strength of the other components in their application package (undergraduate and graduate GPAs, letters of recommendation, professional goal statement, and work experience). Please note: when submitting GRE scores through ETS, have scores sent to the general University of Louisville code, 1838.

Applicants are encouraged to visit the website of the specialization area of interest below for further information about suggested GPA and GRE score requirements, application deadlines, and other specific information related to that specialization area.
