

EXAM ACCOMMODATIONS

The Academic Affairs unit coordinates exam accommodations based on information from the UofL Disability Resource Center (DRC). You must have an accommodation on file with the DRC in order to have an exam accommodation. Accommodated students will receive a supplementary exam schedule, designated alternate rooms, and other information as appropriate ahead of exam weeks. Accommodated students are responsible for attending all exams according to their supplementary schedule or scheduling a makeup exam as described above.