

ANONYMOUS GRADING FOR EXAMS

Brandeis employs blind grading for final exams and midterms. This ensures all exams are graded as anonymous submissions rather than being submitted with students' names.

If your professor is giving a midterm or final exam, you will be sent via email an anonymous grading number. This will be in addition to any information you receive from IT concerning exam software.