Certificate in Police Executive Leadership Development

Unit: College of Arts and Sciences (AS) (<http://www.louisville.edu/a-s/>)
 Department: Criminal Justice (<http://www.louisville.edu/justice/>)
 Academic Plan Code(s): PEDCPED

The Certificate in Police Executive Leadership Development curriculum is designed to prepare agency sponsored officers for administrative careers in law enforcement. The courses offered have been approved by the University of Louisville and evaluated by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Content of the individual courses as well as the overall content of the program is evaluated periodically and changes made if necessary to meet the needs of the law enforcement community.

Successful applicants are accepted to the Southern Police Institute's Administrative Officers Course and enroll as full-time students in the University of Louisville's College of Arts & Sciences. Applicants who have a baccalaureate degree earned from a regionally accredited institution are enrolled in the graduate certificate option (<https://catalog.louisville.edu/graduate/programs-study/graduate-certificate-police-executive-leadership-development/>) outlined in the Graduate Catalog.
