ART (STUDIO) (ART)

Subject-area course lists indicate courses currently active for offering at the University of Louisville. Not all courses are scheduled in any given academic term. For class offerings in a specific semester, refer to the Schedule of Classes (http://htmlaccess.louisville.edu/classSchedule/setupSearchClassSchedule.cfm).

500-level courses generally are included in both the undergraduate- and graduate-level course listings; however, specific course/section offerings may vary between semesters. Students are responsible for ensuring that they enroll in courses that are applicable to their particular academic programs.

Course Fees

Some courses may carry fees beyond the standard tuition costs to cover additional support or materials. Program-, subject- and course-specific fee information can be found on the Office of the Bursar website (http://louisville.edu/bursar/tuitionfee/).

ART 101. Fundamentals of Drawing and Design 3 Units
Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer
Fee: An additional $25.00 is charged for this course.
Description: An introductory studio experience exploring the basic elements of art through experimentation with various media and techniques including an introduction to the use of the computer as an art tool.
Note: Open to non-Art majors.
Note: May not replace ART 105 or ART 106.

For class offerings for a specific term, refer to the Schedule of Classes (http://htmlaccess.louisville.edu/classSchedule/setupSearchClassSchedule.cfm)

ART 200. Studio Art and Visual Culture - AH 3 Units
Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
Description: An introduction to the studio arts, for non-majors, involving analysis, interpretation, criticism and art appreciation through studio practice. This course is intended to give the student a foundation, or strengthen a foundation a student may already have, in visual fundamentals through lectures, readings, gallery visits and hands-on activities. Students will develop an understanding of the elements of art, a basic vocabulary for describing visual art, a general understanding of the role art has played throughout Western history, and contemporary trends. Students will also be encouraged to create subject matter of personal significance to them and by the end of the term to have directions and goals they may wish to pursue in future efforts.
For class offerings for a specific term, refer to the Schedule of Classes (http://htmlaccess.louisville.edu/classSchedule/setupSearchClassSchedule.cfm)

ART 205. Foundation Design Methods 3 Units
Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
Prerequisite(s): ART 105, ART 106, or ART 107; or faculty consent.
Fee: An additional $25.00 is charged for this course.
Description: Fundamental methods of solving visual communication problems found in the design arts with an emphasis on clarity and immediacy of the solution for a general audience. This course is required for students who intend to apply for the BFA program in Graphic Design.
For class offerings for a specific term, refer to the Schedule of Classes (http://htmlaccess.louisville.edu/classSchedule/setupSearchClassSchedule.cfm)

ART 206. Foundation Art Concepts and Methods 3 Units
Term Typically Offered: Spring Only
Prerequisite(s): ART 105, ART 106, or ART 107; or faculty consent.
Fee: An additional $25.00 is charged for this course.
Description: Foundation level introduction to concepts and methods in the visual arts. This course utilizes creative and critical thinking to examine and explore a range of critical orientations and interpretive processes in the creation and understanding of meaning across studio disciplines. This three credit hour course is part of the foundation sequence of classes (one of three 200 level choices that can fulfill the requirement of students seeking a BA or BFA).
