MANAGEMENT (MGMT)

Subject-area course lists indicate courses currently active for offering at the University of Louisville. Not all courses are scheduled in any given academic term. For class offerings in a specific semester, refer to the Schedule of Classes (http://htmlaccess.louisville.edu/classSchedule/setupSearchClassSchedule.cfm).

500-level courses generally are included in both the undergraduate- and graduate-level course listings; however, specific course/section offerings may vary between semesters. Students are responsible for ensuring that they enroll in courses that are applicable to their particular academic programs.

Course Fees

Some courses may carry fees beyond the standard tuition costs to cover additional support or materials. Program-, subject- and course-specific fee information can be found on the Office of the Bursar website (http://louisville.edu/bursar/tuitionfee/).

<td>This course covers the strategic management process from the point of view of top corporate executives. Therefore, it examines the corporation as a whole as well as its relationships with the environment, competitors, customers, and providers of critical resources. A wealth of new research has emerged in recent years. Briefly, this new research has focused on the resource-based view theory of the firm, competitive dynamics, acquisition and restructuring, and corporate governance. The role of innovation in corporations has also assumed a preeminent position in many streams of research. A major premise of this course is that understanding the factors that impact organizational success and survival will enable you as a potential corporate manager to more intelligently formulate and implement future strategies.</td>
