MGMT 409. Franchise HR & Leading Teams
Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
Description: Franchising continues to gain momentum as an avenue to own your own business with the support of an established brand. That support is limited when it comes to HR infrastructures and how to lead your teams. That is due to laws that limit the franchisor’s ability to provide direction in running the day-to-day operation (joint employer).
This course will provide the basics of creating your own HR infrastructure including job descriptions, job roles, recruitment, selection, onboarding, and performance management. The course also provides strategies on how to lead franchise teams to high performance as well as retain the top talent.
For class offerings for a specific term, refer to the Schedule of Classes (http://htmlaccess.louisville.edu/classSchedule/setupSearchClassSchedule.cfm)

MGMT 410. Franchising Fundamentals and Legal Issues
Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
Prerequisite(s): MGMT 301.
Fee: An additional $45.00 is charged for this course.
Description: Franchising in the U.S. has become pervasive and affords an opportunity to be an entrepreneur with the safety net of an established brand. This course explores the basics of franchising from the franchisee point of view and provides a deep understanding of the requirements and opportunities regarding this growing industry. This course covers legal concepts that are fundamental to franchising, such as the application of trademark and trade secret principles to franchise relationships. Because franchising is a regulated form of business, students will study important regulatory laws: federal disclosure law, disclosure and relationships laws. Course will include application of contracts and tort principles to franchise disputes.
For class offerings for a specific term, refer to the Schedule of Classes (http://htmlaccess.louisville.edu/classSchedule/setupSearchClassSchedule.cfm)

MGMT 413. Franchise Growth and Support
Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
Description: There are many opportunities to grow a franchise business as well as different avenues to growth. This course explores the types of growth available in franchising, financial considerations, and other variables that need to be considered. The second half of the course focuses on relationships with your franchisor, and what it takes to be successful in this industry.
