PHIL 590. Philosophical Foundations of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion 3 Units
Term Typically Offered: Fall Only
Description: This course will provide an overview of the theory and practice of diversity. Diversity is understood as the many sociocultural differences between individuals and the differences that those differences make for those individuals. In this course, we will explore the historical context of oppression, the oppression framework for understanding diversity, privilege, social identity, the role of the body in diversity, stereotypes, and the personal experiences of both those who are oppressed and those who are privileged. Students will also have a substantial opportunity to examine how these general themes impact their particular area of study, work, or interest. Students pursuing that certificate should enroll in PHIL 690.
Note: This is the core course for the Diversity Literacy Certificate.
