Program Information

The College of Arts & Sciences and the Louis D. Brandeis School of Law have joined forces to create 3+3 Accelerated Law programs that allow eligible students in the College of Arts & Sciences to begin law school in their senior year of undergraduate study. Students substitute undergraduate major and elective requirements with the first 30 hours of law school, earning an undergraduate degree after their first year of law school and a Juris Doctor (JD) degree two years later. Students must have completed three years (6 semesters, fall & spring) of undergraduate course work post high school graduation, including transfer credit, prior to enrollment at Brandeis.

Completion of this degree requires work to be submitted for the department's Learning Outcomes Measurement. For details, contact the department.

Departmental Admission Requirements

This program is designed for the high achieving student who plans to study law. Students must complete 30 credit hours with a 3.25 GPA and meet with a criminal justice advisor before being accepted as a 3+3 to law in criminal justice major.

The Application for Major form can be found on the Arts & Sciences Advising Center website (<http://louisville.edu/artsandsciences/advising/apply/>).

Admission to Law School

Admission to the 3+3 track does not guarantee admission to the Brandeis School of Law. Students seeking admission to our law school must complete a law school application and satisfy all of Brandeis' admissions requirements, including its median GPA and LSAT expectations.

The law school requires that students seeking admission through the 3+3 program have completed three years of undergraduate course work post high school graduation. It is recommended that students planning to pursue this track have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5.

For more information on Brandeis and its admissions requirements, please contact Brandeis School of Law, Office of Admissions (<http://louisville.edu/law/admissions/>). Their office can also arrange for you to visit the law school.
