This program was approved for students entering the university in the Summer 2022–Spring 2023 catalog year. For more information about catalog year, go to Catalog Year Information (<http://catalog.louisville.edu/undergraduate/university-wide-unit-specific-policies/catalog-year/>).

Minor in German

Unit: College of Arts and Sciences (AS) (<http://www.louisville.edu/a-s/>)

Department: Classical and Modern Languages (<http://louisville.edu/modernlanguages/>)

Academic Plan Code(s): GERMMINOR

The German minor is designed for all students seeking to expand their German language and intercultural competencies beyond the introductory level. The program complements a wide variety of majors by unlocking new opportunities to study and intern abroad. Additionally, this minor increases students' marketability to potential employers and graduate programs domestically and internationally by demonstrating greater German language proficiency and intercultural awareness. The German minor provides flexibility in allowing students to complete its requirements exclusively through courses taught in German or by including courses taught in English. Whether your goals are to live and work in a German-speaking country or you just enjoy learning about German language and culture, the German minor has you covered!
